

Even though we are supposed to be listed on the "Do not call" list, we still get unsolicited calls. I just received one from MCI and they won't take "no" for an answer. How do they get away with this? It should be our decision as to whom we wish to do business, donate to, etc. We really don't want to see this list curtailed.